

ABOUT US:

Based on the Orff Schulwerk philosophy of music education, our camp focuses on music as a whole body experience involving movement, playing instruments, singing and creating. Prairie Winds Orff members are a dedicated group of North Dakota music educators who believe strongly in the power of music to change children's lives. It is through music that students learn to be creative. So don't delay, sign up for a great day of meeting new people, making music and having fun!
